

HAMILTON BANK REOPENS WITH NEW DEPOSITS

More Money Put In Than Was Taken Out During First Hour.

NO RUSH TO WITHDRAW

New President Greatly Pleased
With the Show of Public Confidence.

The Hamilton Bank, in West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, and the six branches in Harlem and the Bronx resumed business at 10 o'clock this morning with no more attendant excitement than that associated with the opening for trade on Monday of any business enterprise. Where long lines of depositors anxious to withdraw their percentage of balances allowed by the reopening agreement were anticipated there were no lines at all. In the main bank the deposits during the first hour simply swamped the withdrawals. The Hamilton is the first of the banks that closed during the October panic to reopen. The resumption of business proved that the feeling of public fear has been dissipated. Of the 15,000 depositors on the books of the Hamilton bank when it suspended less than fifty appeared at the main counting room and the branches at the opening hour to draw out money.

Undoubtedly a great volume of checks drawn by depositors, will be put through Harlem retail stores to-day and for a time there will be some confusion over the tendency of depositors to check out a greater percentage of their holdings than the agreement they signed will permit. Outside of this the officers of the bank anticipate no trouble whatever.

"We are deeply gratified," said President Frank L. Grant, "at the confidence shown by the people. We are also pleased at the guarantee that our confidence in our customers was not misplaced. We desire to thank all who have assisted us in bringing about the reopening of the bank, and especially the newspapers for the manner in

15 CASTAWAYS FOUGHT FATE ON BARREN ISLAND

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 20.—The steamer Miwera arrived yesterday from Australia bringing details regarding the finding of the castaways from the wrecked barkentine Dundonald, who for eight months struggled to exist on Disappointment Island, 200 miles south of New Zealand.

The Dundonald, with a crew of twenty-seven, was smashed on the rocks off the island on March 7 last, twelve being drowned and fifteen survivors found at Auckland Island, which they reached in a rudely fashioned boat, eight months afterward, by the New Zealand steamer Hineoma.

The castaways lived on raw molly-hawks and seals and built a fire and kept it going for seven months until May. Canvas from the ship was used for covering. Cold weather came then with snow and hail, and with their hands only they dug holes in the ground above which huts were built of sods and sticks. In these they lived on molly-hawks and seals. At first they cooked food on the fire, but later built which they have helped public confidence along."

The officers and clerical force reached the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street bank before 9 o'clock. At 8 three automobiles, carrying nearly 1,000,000, started out for the branches at One Hundred and Forty-fifth street and Amsterdam avenue, One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street and Seventh avenue, No. 75 Tremont avenue, No. 194 White Plains avenue, One Hundred and Sixty-third street and Third avenue, and One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street and Willis avenue. This money was distributed within an hour.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the cashiers and tellers' windows in the main bank and all the branches were opened. At that hour there were twenty-five men and five women waiting at the paying teller's window. Five men carrying big bags of money were at the receiving teller's window ready to open accounts.

SMELTING BREAKS ON HEAVY SELLING

Pressure on Stock Weakens
the Market and Early Gains
Are Wiped Out.

Some stocks made sharp gains in the early market dealings to-day, but the general tone was dull and irregular, partly in sympathy with the hesitating tone of the London market. St. Louis Southwestern preferred advanced 1/8. Missouri Pacific 1/4. Denver and Rio Grande and Utah Copper 1 and Canadian Pacific, Amalgamated Copper American Ice large fractions.

American Smelting broke early, sales of 10 shares being made at 70 7/8 and 70 1/2 and running sales of 10,000 shares from 70 to 68. The selling of Smelting continued as the market advanced, the stock losing 4 3/8 this making a total loss in a week of 12 points.

Reading, a slight rally, but the effect was not lasting and the market sagged away below the opening. Trading was active.

The trend of the market all day was downward, prices at the close being the lowest of the session. Smelting's full decline being 6 points. Trading in the final dealings was brisk.

The total sales of stock were $1,300 shares and of bonds $3,417,000.
